

Society for Police and Criminal Psychology

2019 Conference in Scottsdale, Arizona
September 22-25, 2019

Sponsorship Opportunities (Acknowledged with a link on the SPCP website and a full-page advertisement in the conference program.)

- $2000 Lunch (2 available) – Sponsor a luncheon at the Conference. Lunches are provided on the first two full days of the conference. Your organization will be acknowledged for your support through opportunities to display literature, hang banners, and have a representative present.
- $1500 Poster Session --Student and professional posters are a special part of the Society. Many students prepare research all year long and get to compete to win cash prizes for their presentation of their research poster. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres are served at the poster reception. If you choose to sponsor the poster session reception, your organization will be acknowledged for your support through opportunities to display literature, hang banners, and have a representative present.
- $1500 Opening reception – On the first night that people arrive for the conference, they will be greeted with a reception with cocktails and light food. You can sponsor this opening event that allows opportunities for socializing and networking, and gets the conference off to a terrific start. You will get the opportunity to make a brief welcome address and to display literature.
- $1000 Morning or afternoon breaks (5 available) – You can sponsor the break for a half-day session of presentations. Coffee, tea, sodas, juice and a small snack are offered during these breaks. Your company name will be announced as the sponsor at the beginning of the session.
- $750 Awards – The Society gives out awards every year for things such as best conference presentation, best student poster, best professional poster, etc. The award plaques are worthy of display and proudly received. Sponsors of awards will be acknowledged when individuals receive their awards.
